The last excursion of the season to Newport takes place on Wednesday, August 28, on special train via the Central Vermont R. R. and the elegant steamer Chester W. Chapin. Tickets can be procured at all stations between South Londonderry, Vt., and New London, Conn. On the return the boat will leave Newport at 4 p. m., arriving in New London at 7 p. m. The special train leaving there at 7:15 p. m. will arrive at South Londonderry at 10:15 p. m. The steamer Chester W. Chapin, which is one of the world's famous waterways and attracts thousands of visitors to the beautiful Newport harbor, is a fine vessel. The boat is ideal for the public beach offering safe and delightful places to bathe. Among the sights of the town are the magnificent mansions owned by some of the wealthiest men of the country. It is also noted for its picturesque, natural beauties, its fine harbor for yachting, its cliffs and beautiful country surroundings.

BROADWAY THEATER

Brothers Byrne.

Those ever popular and well known pantomimists will appear in their great success, the new "Eight Bells," at the Broadway theater on Monday, August 26. In presenting "Eight Bells" to our theater patrons this season, the Brothers Byrne have expended over $20,000 in new scenery, mechanical effects and stage paraphernalia. They intend giving one of the best and most complete pantomime comedies on the stage. The reputation they have gained for themselves has been due through hard and faithful work, and for this reason they have been able to keep the confidence of so many people. "Eight Bells" is a startling revelation in stage craft. John F. Byrne has invented a number of new and surprising tricks which will greatly amuse the audience. The scenery is surprisingly beautiful and the mechanical effects wonderful. Don't miss seeing the Brothers Byrne in the new "Eight Bells." Seats on sale at the box office, Wauregan house, and Bicket, Pitcher & Co's on Friday, August 23, at 2 o'clock.

LINCOLN PARK

Rocket Night Pleases the Crowd.

Rocket night got out the crowd at Lincoln park last week, exactly as feature night was expected to. The show, which ended at 9:40, there was an intermission of 15 minutes during which the young folks and some of their elders danced in the pavilion, although several of the people took this time to stroll about the grounds or to cool off in the pavilion, where Professor Baker and his orchestra furnished plenty of popular music. Then, at 10:05, the park was illuminated by red fire for ten minutes, and after that faded the rockets, three dozen of them, were set off from a lot on the south side of the road that runs off by Gates pond. There were almost as many mines as rockets, and when rockets and mines had been exhausted more red fire flooded the park and the adjoining pond, car barn and power station. The display was over at 10:30. Some of the spectators took the 10:15 car for the city, but the bulk of the crowd, ready to see the continuation of the management, remained to witness the whole of the pyrotechnic treat and board the 11:05 for Norwich, everyone expressing satisfaction with the rocket night programme.

The Rustic theater bill is gilt edge in every respect, and "Klip" Reeves' "Monkey Honeymoon" is a comedy of the highest order. The comedy is a hit at every performance, the singing of Miss Adams being particularly agreeable. Mavollo, the black wire walker and juggler, is a clever and his balancing is daring. Morrow and Heins, the two-man musical troupe, have several catchy songs notably "Don't Be an Old Maid, Molly, and some sharp cuts and jokes and a Rubie in Chinatown, in which Frank Rice, the successor of Al McMillan in the famous Rice brothers of the '80s, is the Chinaman and Joe Elmers, the countryman, shows some extremely good bar work by both Rice and Elmers.

Sunday's free concert starts at 3:20, some after the arrival of the car leaving the square at 2:45.

Norbert Schütz has been made gate tender by Manager Cranston, succeeding Mr. Jewett, who resigned.

BREED THEATER

"The Black Sheep," Sou' Stirling Motion Picture.

An usual, large attendance was present at the matinee and evening performances at the Breed theater, and the extra fine bill submitted for the pleasure of those present was most satisfying. The great soul stirring story of the prodigal son, embodied in the film entitled "The Black Sheep," is truly beautiful, although quite unusual in the cinema. This picture is deserving of great praise for the splendid moral that it teaches, and its uplifting influence for those who have been unfortunate and fallen by the way-side. The class of motion pictures seen at the Breed thoroughly upholds the high standard of excellence established by Manager McNulty, and the excellent bill for the remainder of the week is no exception.

Included in the list is "The Peasant Prince," a splendid Selig film of the days when knighthood was in flower, and "The Friend of the Family," of the famous Biograph cast, with some of the handiwork seen in any motion picture and thoroughly up to date.

A sporting picture of rare interest is entitled "Trained Falcons," and shows one of perhaps the oldest sports known as well as one of the strangest, and makes a great hit.

Master Harry Noonan continues to delight all with his well rendered roles, his charming "I've Got to Leave Somebody," winning the admiration of the house.
